Dinner and a Play – Part II – Saturday, March 16 – PLEASE RSVP NOW

Due to last year’s very well attended “Noises Off” presented by the Geauga Theatre Guild, we are going to repeat the dinner/ show for this year’s comedy “The Curious Savage”.

The story goes that Mrs. Savage has been left ten million dollars by her husband and wants to make the best use of it, in spite of her grown-up stepchildren’s efforts to get their hands on it. Knowing that the widow’s wealth is now in negotiable securities, and seeing they cannot get hold of the fortune, the stepchildren commit her to a sanatorium hoping to “bring her to her senses.” In the sanatorium Mrs. Savage meets various social misfits, men and women who just cannot adjust themselves to life; people who need the help Mrs. Savage can provide. In getting to know them, she realizes that she will find happiness with them and plans to spend the rest of her life as one of them.

But when the doctor tells her there is no reason why she should remain, she hesitates to go out into a hard world where people seem ready to do anything for money. The self-seeking stepchildren are driven to distraction by their vain efforts to browbeat Mrs. Savage, but she preserves her equanimity and leads them on a merry chase. At last her friends conspire to get rid of her stepchildren, and through their simple belief in the justice of her cause, they enable Mrs. Savage to carry out her plans to establish a fund to help others realize their hopes and dreams.

We have only 25 tickets so if you are interested in joining us for the dinner and/or show, please RSVP below. Dinner starts at 6:00pm and the show at 7:30. Tickets for the show are $10/person and dinner are $15/person. When you RSVP, please let me know the number of tickets, and for the show, dinner, or both. MGOHIO@AOL.COM or 614-899-2394. Payment will be due at the end of February (I’ll send an e-mail reminder).

Chili/Bunco – Part II (The Stars have Realigned) – Saturday, March 30

As you might remember, our original Chili/Bunco Extravaganza in January was postponed due to a “scattered flurry” that swept across Bedford. As a result, we’ve had our heads together for the last few weeks and have been able to realign the stars thanks to the Baders and Dan Pocek. So please mark your calendar for Saturday, March 30 at 6:00pm for Chili/Bunco Part II at the same location. Hopefully, this will still be cold enough to enjoy chili, but not too cold where we have to shovel the “flurries” out of our path.

More information (but realistically updated January) will be in the next issue, but please RSVP now to help us know how many of the stale Fritos we need to pitch. Please RSVP with your name and number of fun seekers attending (MGOHIO@AOL.COM or 614-899-2394).

Yes Virginia, there is a Spring

Despite my thermometer reading sub-tropic (actually well sub-zero) whilst I’m writing this, Rod & Bev Barkley (The High Prince and Princess of Ice Cream) are already plotting our caloric intake for the warmer months. Please see Rod’s article elsewhere in this edition requesting input from the Club.
